"A view from Yaki Point" Oil on canvas 12" X16"

Award-winning California Impressionist Calvin Liang will teach a three-day online workshop with focus on painting your favorite landscape from a photo. This workshop is a foundational part of training the eyes to better understand the concepts of composition, design, and color harmony.

Students will have the option of working on one painting for the entire duration under Calvin's guidance, or completing more than one. Calvin will start the workshop with a slide-show demonstration to show how he uses photo references for his studio paintings.

Calvin will cover the following areas:

- Plan a composition that will most effectively capture your vision.
- See and use warm and cool colors in landscape.
- Learn to command hardness and softness of the edges to create space in a painting
- Simplify the subject matter through the use of basic design, value, color and drawing skills.
- Consider the reasons for different paint textures and brushstroke direction over the forms; and
- Get the best possible results in a short time.

From his paintings of sailboats crashing through waves, to rocky California coastline, to Spanish missions of centuries past and scenic national parks, Calvin Liang's masterful oils never fail to impress and inspire art lovers.

Calvin was born in Canton, China, and first began painting in high school. He completed his art education at the Shanghai Academy of Fine Arts, recognized as one of China's most prestigious and competitive art academies. In China, his skills as a fine artist were applied to the theatrical industry, where he designed and created sets for operas and musicals for the Canton Opera Institute.

Calvin moved to the United States in 1987 and continued his profession as a full-time artist. He had a long and successful career creating visual art for the entertainment industry in animation, which included Walt Disney Studio and Nickelodeon Studio. He put in a semester in college learning the ins and outs of animation and eventually helped bring "The Little Mermaid" and "Cinderella" stories to life. He was later employed with Nickelodeon, working on "Angry Beavers" and "SpongeBob."

Ultimately, Calvin became fascinated by the beautiful California landscape and decide to transform himself into a fine artist, painting themes of his choosing.. Since leaving his animation career in early 2002, Calvin has definitely been noticed and rewarded.

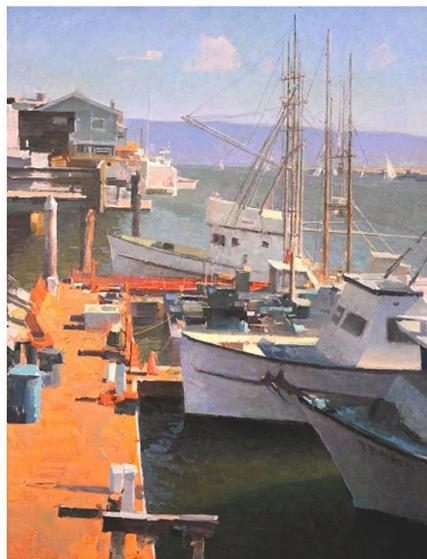

He is a signature member of California Art Club, a master signature member of Oil Painters of America, a signature member of Oil Painters of America, and Laguna Plein Air Painter's Association. He is the recipient of numerous art awards and featured in many art magazines.

In addition to the annual California Art Club Gold Medal show, Calvin was selected into the premier Masters of the American West Fine Art Exhibition at Autry Museum here in Los Angeles in 2012-2016.

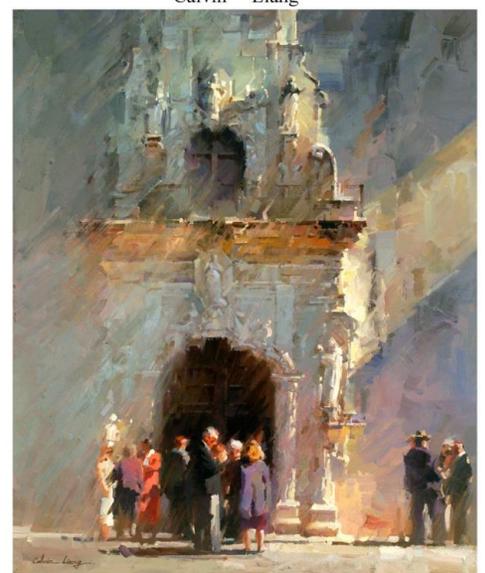

Calvin Liang is the winner of Irvine Museum Award at 2021 California Art Club's Gold Medal Exhibitions.
