

Plein Air workshop with Chuck Kovacic

Saturday, October 17, 9:00AM - 3:00PM

Deukmejian Wilderness Park La Crescenta

Chuck Kovacic -- Plein air oil painter, actor, and comedian will lead a plein air workshop for VHAA in October. Chuck paints in the traditional plein air style of the impressionists rendering a diversity of subjects. This workshop will explore the importance of shadow and light when putting together a composition. There will be demonstration, instruction and critique. Both oil and watercolor artists are welcome for this workshop.

Chuck has a BFA in graphic design from the Cleveland Institute of Art. He worked for several years as an art director for print campaigns for Owens Corning, Ford, National City Bank. When he moved to Southern California he focused on restoration projects associated with pre-1950 merchandising and related antiques.

Chuck's schedule this summer/fall includes a Sept. 2 demo for West Valley art Association; the Sept 3 opening of the California Art Club's Old Mill Gallery in San Marino featuring 2 of his new paintings; and on Sept 5 the opening of a 3-artist show at the SAGA Gallery in Monrovia with over 20 works by Chuck. From Sept 14-19 he is one of the participating artists in the Sonoma Plein Air Festival. And in July he won best of show at the Frank Bette Plein Air Festival in Alamada. Chuck is an artist member of the California Art Club.

Pacific Keyhole

Deukmejian Park is a convenient location offering a variety of scenes, especially great views of the mountain/hills. The small amphitheater provides a great shaded spot for presentation and review. Parking and restrooms are easily accessible. Bring a picnic lunch.

(In case of inclement weather, workshop will be held at CitiBank Community Room, 2350 Honolulu Ave., Montrose)
